W&M Director Position

The Worship and Music Director is the spiritual and organizational leader, under the direction of the Senior Pastor, responsible for the provision of corporate worship and Sunday worship communication and culture.

Some requirements of this position include the following:

- + Be fully devoted to God and to the church of Jesus Christ and be committed to expressing that devotion through heart-felt worship consistent with the CCPC statement of faith.
- + Must have a servant's heart and provide oversight to the entire music ministry of the church and Central College Christian Academy.
- + Possess strong administration and organization skills with the ability and enthusiasm to identify, encourage, and recruit volunteers to grow an extensive, varied music ministry for all ages.
- + Have a Bachelor Degree with a minimum of minor in music or equivalent focus on worship, music ministry and/or choral or vocal music. Additional training in piano, guitar or other musical instruments desired.
- + Have a minimum of 5 years of church-related experience planning and leading worship and directing musical groups with exposure and knowledge of a variety of music types, including contemporary and traditional Christian music.

Some responsibilities of this position include the following:

- + Engage the congregation in the work of worship.
- + Help design and plan inspiring and diverse worship services.
- + Manage all music ministries at CCPC, including those led by paid staff and volunteers.
- + Select service music, responsive reading/prayers, and other creative and visionary methods of devotion that support and enhance the message of the day.
- + Coordinate all participation in worship including ushers, readers, mission reports, soloists, music groups, children's activities, communion, A/V leadership etc and support recruitment as needed.
- + Oversee bulletin preparation by the Communications Director.
